

NEW FROM HaymarketBooks

Dennis Brutus
Lee Sustar and Aisha Karim, eds.

Contact: Julie Fain
info@haymarketbooks.org

Haymarket Books
P.O. Box 180165
Chicago, IL 60618
Phone: 773-583-7884
www.haymarketbooks.org

Bulk discounts available.

Fax desk/exam copy requests to 773-583-6144

Shipping: $2.50 for first book,
$.75 each additional book.

Bookstores call Consortium
800-283-3572.

POETRY AND PROTEST

A Dennis Brutus Reader

DENNIS BRUTUS

Dennis Brutus is known worldwide as a voice against apartheid. Since its fall, he has been a voice for justice and humanity, as this brilliant original collection of interviews, poetry, and essays, the first of its kind in North America, clearly shows.

We in South Africa needed the support of the international community in our efforts to end the vicious system of oppression called apartheid. We had to have eloquent advocates tell the world our story and persuade it to come to our assistance. We won a spectacular victory over the awfulness of apartheid, a victory that is unthinkable without the support of the international community. We had none more articulate and with more credibility and integrity than Dennis Brutus to lead our cause.

Archbishop Desmond Tutu

Dennis Brutus has been an inspiration and a source of strength to so many of us worldwide who are struggling to make the world a just place. Struggling for justice and humanity is hard work; it is full of setbacks, heartbreak, and loss. It is precisely at the hardest points in our struggle that we think of Dennis. We are inspired by how he keeps doing the most important work in the world, at how strong his spirit is after everything that he has seen and suffered through.

Center for Economic Justice, Johannesburg

Dennis Brutus stands as a tribune of the dispossessed. His willingness to speak out on all cases of injustice and side with the oppressed makes him the type of person we all wish to emulate. His perseverance, dedication and eloquence have made him not only a hero for the South African freedom struggle, but for all those who struggle for social justice.

Bill Fletcher, TransAfrica Forum

Dennis continues to do everything in his power to support and build the movements for global justice. He has created a legacy that is inspiring, and a catalyst for creating that "other possible world." We are proud to call Dennis a brother in the struggle for true liberation for Africa and the world. Where there is struggle, there you will find Dennis.

Njoki Njoroge Njehu & Soren Ambrose, 50 Years Is Enough Network

DENNIS BRUTUS was imprisoned with Nelson Mandela in South Africa and became a spokesperson for the anti-apartheid movement. He teaches African Studies and Literature at the University of Pittsburgh.

ISBN 1-931859-22-1 paper $16 280 pp Jan 2006